Trees Ontario Grows Its Partnerships with OPG and LEAF at the 2010 Green Living Show

Trees Ontario is not only growing its provincial tree planting programs, it's also budding into the spring 2010 planting season with two new partners.

This year at the Green Living Show, Trees Ontario will join forces with Ontario Power Generation and LEAF (Local Enhancement and Appreciation of Forests) in a joint space, to recognize the importance of biodiversity, and urban and rural tree planting programs. The booth (#909) will be adjacent to the show's urban forest.

Show attendees will have the opportunity to tell their tree story in our video booth, learn about the organizations, discuss backyard tree planting tips and techniques, assess eligibility for tree planting subsidy programs, and hear about OPG's Biodiversity Program.

Reduce Tree Planting Costs with Trees Ontario Subsidy Programs

When you plant trees on your property, you can do more than fight climate change. You can also cut your taxes by up to 75 per cent and receive funding assistance on forested properties of five acres (two hectares) or more.

If you have at least five acres (two hectares) of productive land in southern Ontario and are willing to maintain the trees that are planted, you may be eligible to take part in the 50 Million Tree Program.

Trees Ontario is attending the Green Living Show (booth #909), where landowners can learn about Ontario's 50 Million Tree Program, tree planting techniques and other subsidy programs.

Visit the Trees Ontario booth to find out more, or visit www.treesontario.ca/programs.

About Trees Ontario

Trees Ontario, working with its partners, is the largest not-for-profit tree planting partnership in North America. It is committed to the re-greening of Ontario through a range of tree planting activities.

This year, with its partners, Trees Ontario will plant close to 3 million trees. Its goal is to support the planting of 10 million trees per year by 2015. To participate, donate and learn more, visit www.treesontario.ca.
